CALL TO CONFESSION

Liturgist

Remember that our Lord Jesus can sympathize with us in our weaknesses, since in every respect he was tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then approach the throne of grace with boldness, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Liturgist

Dear Lord, what is it in us that dreads your coming? Why do the palms of our hands cover our eyes, lest our souls see you? When the music sounds from far heaven, we tremble; when it sounds like bells, and the truth close by, our very hearts cry out a gladness long forgotten, yet always long remembered. It is our sin that dreads and hides. Our pride cannot bear you. Our falsehood cannot hear you. O Gracious One, come even so, and devastate and empty us, and in your mercy, capture us for you. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who hears even our silent cries. Amen. (Frederick Buechner) (Time of silent prayer)

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

The Lord is gracious and merciful; slow to anger, and abounding in love. He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who revere him. He has removed our transgressions from us as far as the East is from the West.
